Math 308 Final Project

Napoleon’s Theorem

Name: Andrew Kwan

Student #: 48743983

Napoleon’s Theorem states the following : On each side of a given arbitrary triangle describe an equilateral triangle exterior to the given one, and join the centers of the three thus obtained equilateral triangles. The resulting triangle is also equilateral.

The following will be graphical proof of this theorem based on rotations, polygon properties, and parallel lines.