

WORKSHOP 2.4

Problem

Question: You want to go from one corner of the room to the corner diagonally opposite as quickly as possible. From your starting corner, you must wall-walk along the wall a certain distance, and then room-walk through the room in a straight line towards the diagonally opposite corner. Find how far you should wall-walk.