

A dimer model on the Fisher Lattice

Sunil Chhita

Brown University

June 1, 2009

Abstract.

The Fisher lattice is a honeycomb lattice with a certain triangle decoration. With appropriate weights, the dimer model on this lattice gives a one dimensional particle system representation. This talk shall focus on a particular weighting, which leads to the particle system being a noisy voter model. This is ongoing work with Richard Kenyon.